

You're Covered

Many people don't realize that even the most comprehensive vehicle insurance may have gaps in coverage. That means you could end up responsible for a potentially significant expense if your vehicle is stolen and unrecoverable or is written off as a total loss.

That's because an insurance settlement is often less than the outstanding balance of your finance contract. GAPCoverage covers you in situations like these, so you can drive worry-free.

GAPCoverage is only available at the time of vehicle purchase. For more details, go to fordcredit.com or consult your local Ford Dealer.
